

Food & Feed Policy

Food & Feed safety policies protect health from food contamination. Foodborne diseases take a major toll on health.

Food & Feed safety All measures to ensure that food /Feed will not cause harm to the customer when it is prepared and/or eaten according to its intended use. Foodborne A general term used to describe any disease or illness caused by eating contaminated disease food or drink.

Management and staff are committed to implement a food/feed safety system that defines the applicable ISO 22000, ISO TS 22002-1:2009 Prerequisite programmes on food/feed safety, Part-1: Food manufacturing and additional FSSC 22000 requirements & FAMI-QS code of Practice, standards for all our processes and follows a series of written procedures that provides, our customers, confidence in our safe products.

- Provides a framework for setting and reviewing the objectives of the FSMS.
- Includes a commitment to satisfy applicable food safety requirements, including statutory and regulatory requirements and mutually agreed customer requirements related to food & feed safety.
- Addresses internal and external communication.
- Includes a commitment to continual improvement of the FSMS.
- Addresses the need to ensure competencies related to food/feed safety.

Vaibhav Agrawal

Managing Director